HONGKONG, THURSDAY, MAY 4, 1819

A FEW days ago, our Amoy correspondent

nformed us that the Japanese Consul at 3 00 p.m. - Auction of Crown Land, at that Port had demanded the Tiger Head Hill as the site of the proposed Japanese Settlement or Concession, and that if this demand were porsisted in it might lead to disturbances and the embitterment of the Chinese towards the Foreign community. The Amoy Taotai, we are informed upon good authority, has endeavoured to the S p.m .- Auction of Crown Land, at best of his ability to meet the wishes of the Japanese authorities, without in any way attempting to oppose the granting of a Concession. He has pointed out to the Japanese that the Tiger Head Hill embraces the local cometery, where, for generations, the Chinese have buried their dead, and which, consequently, has ansumed a certain degree of facredness in their eyes, Should they be successful in obtaining this site, the Japanese are determined that the coffina shall be removed, and this at the expense of the Chipeac themselves. It is estimated that at least 180,000 coffins will have to be thus removed. and, in addition, a collection of 800 Chinese houses will have to be demolished in order that the alte may be taken over by the Japaneso ! without engumbrances. As our correspondent pointed out at the lime, the Japanese appear to be somewhat Irrational and inconsiderate in their domands. If any people should know the Chinese chamotor it should be the Japanese. In their dualings with the Chinese, therefore, they might be expected to show a reasonable Amount of consideration for the native auxceptibilities, which, after all, are in this the world. A Chinese o metery may not.

instance not unshared by people all over be quite the 'God's Aore' of an English village, but if any foreigner were to invide a Lancashice village and demand the village cometery as the site of a Foreign Concession or Settlement we think we know enough of the English character to predict. for the invading foreigner a pretty warm time; and we do not know that many protested with a brick against the desecration of his village cometery. The Chinese are, in many respects, a very objectionable people; but whether we regard them as high or law in the scale of human intelligence their most sacred feelings are entitled to respectful treatment, and if the Japanese precipitate trouble in Amoy, by their unreasonable demands they will receive little or no sympathy or support from the The M. M. Co.'s s. s. Laws, with the Foreign Powers interested in the main tenance of the peace in thina. From what we hear, the question is rapidly nearing a crisis, so the public need not be surprised if alarming news is received from Amoy within the next few days, unless the Japanese Minister Peking refuses to support the demand of his Consul at Amoy. That the Japanese officials do not hold the same views is as serted with apparent justification. Japanese Minister is (or was) inclined to accept a concession to the West of the Tiger Hill site, and on this understanding the Tsung-li Yamen and the Tautai were prepared to settle the question off hand. The Japanese Consul, however, doubtless with the authority and support of the Japanese Foreign Office, holds different views. The Japanese Concession must be convenient for the traders who are expected to flock into the Settlement; it must have a good frontage on a safe anchorage, with every Tur Chinese at Singapore are following in facility for loading and discharging cargo. Not a great while ago this native was an assistant godown man in a Mauila warehouse, earning $8 or $10 a month pay, short time at this work and he entered the Rhan, havildar of the Hongkong Regis service of the 'Padre Cura,' of Baccor, a Spanish priest, as headman (and bottle Witness said that No 2 section of the | washer !), and whon he had sufficiently Hongkong Regiment hurned some villages | captivated the Cura's confidence, and fell on the 17th April. No Chinese came to I himself a necessity, the former probably found it convenient to put him into a position of trust in the neighbouring village of Oavite Viejo, where against the remonatrances of the villagers, who did not fancy a Oura's nomines under any oircumstances. Aguinable was made Gebernadereille (Petty Governor), as a 'oresture' of the Cura, to carry out his orders and do his dirty work generally. When he had sufficiently roused the villagers against his rule. he having no doubt feathered his nest nicely during his tenure of office, he set about putting himself right with the natives by gurring up strile against the priests all round-out of gratitude probably to his protector, th Cura of Bussian for giving him a 'leg up defendant. When he wont knowed to are jund planing him in power, where he could avail of his opportunity to plot mischief against the white man in general and the priest in particular

He-conceived the idea of rising against the Government for the expulsion of the friare first, and afterwards for the exter minution of the Spanisrds. To this end he cooppied himself in getting together such arms as he could get hold of, making ammunition out of scrap from and any bits of motal he could find about the arsenal and shipyard at Canacao, A small powder factory was put up, and from small beginning he got together a few hundred gunswooden, and metal of a primitive description, and therefore practically valueless to cons/with modern arms. Only a diseased imagination could conseive the idea of fight ing with such weapons,

At length, however, thinking himself ready, and, as he thought, certain of the revolt of the native Spanish soldiers and Guardia Civil in his favour, he ordered the movement of 29th August, 1806, when he planned the taking of Manile by way of Licutement Barrett; crocon semined by Sampaleo, On that day, carly in the mornpromptly crushed the movement, and Azuinaldo made peace by selling himself and his 'Army' for money, the history of the transaction bein so well known that

THEN THENIOTH NYAYT GAN EQUETRING TO LICE CENTRON,

New York, April 2,- A Syn special from Vashington says: There are now being manufactured at the Naval gun factory here rifles of all sizes for the ships authorize which are expected to develop far higher qualities than those obtaining for propagate of equal older at present linealled an aniphoard. They will be heavier, more eastly, and greatly appearing to the best guns of the Oregon, Brooklyst and other types of now vessels. None of the larger sizes have yet been assembled, but designs were completed several months ago, by which twelves, bights and sixes will be more effect live weamons than gums of the same calibres now affort One of the first pieces completed is six-inch rifle which will shortly he tested at the Naval proving ground down the Potomac. The present six inch rifle has a relocity not exceeding 2100 feet per second for its projectile, while the new piece, with its enlarged powder charge, will have not less than 3000 feet velocity, and the nightinch will almost equal it. A rapid-fire sixinch gun with 3000 feet velocity will aq int in effectiveness the old slow-fire eights now mounted on the Baltimore and Boston." In addition to the vast amount of work the shop is doing for the new ships, it is engaged also in converting all six-inch game of slow-fire pattern into quick firers, The difference between the two is very great, and it is intended that every vos-ol now mounting slow-fire game shall be engineed with the most medern mechanical appliances, as fast as hatteries can be dismounted and uuns sont here for the change So far nearly all the ressels of Admiral Sampagn's command have new sixes, and some with Admiral Dawey's flust, but the Bullimore. Philadelphia and a symber of other vessels still retain the same old bettering mounted when they were first constructed.

THE BRITISH LEGATION AT PEKING.

The special correspondent of the Morning Post criticises. in a letter from Johann the composition of the British Legation at Peking. He states that so long as the office of Minister is maintained in Poking, there seems to be every resson why the British Legation should be rendered as officient as unsaible. The Minister may be worked of his luce and the staff driven to their with and to copy all their dispatches, while the First Secretary is a gentleman at large, who may if he pleases volunteer to address envelopes or assist the young strackes in their clerical work, but for all the aid he fenders to his chief beyond such trivial pervices, he is little more than a oypher. No blamo necessarily attaches to individuals for this state of things, for it has gone on for many years. The names of several able men appear in the list of First Secretaries, to mention only Mr Malet, Mr Goschen, Mr Huward, and Mr. Beauclerk, who one and all deplored the necessity of spending their sime in idleness. Climatio condilions and extarior disturbances have the worst possible effect upo Hongkong olicas. We are simply stagnat ing, and hoping to be able to route our selves and play later. No challenger has come forward to meet Mr Buienbarg, and I am sure that he will agree with me the Hangkong myst indeed be isthargie when this is the case. The Chica Club sleeps for the weather has suppost the energie nut of these Phose printicgs it should t to awake it,

I see it stated that an injustice has boo done to Pillabury by the papers, and the he did not, in his reply to Japonski' shallenge, lay down the absurd press regalations attributed to him, We know that Pillsbury holds the opinion that the copyright of a chesa game is the privat property of the players, and that the soors should be printed only with their sanction and for their profit. It scome, at first night just enough, but the theory is narrow minded, selfish and short-righted. Co: sider Pillabury's own case. His ch.w talent enables him to make a fair living simply because the press has advertised and nursed a local reputation till it became international. Were he now to refuse hi games to the press, and the newspapers ! perish. I am of opinion that he has th abstract right of keeping the acores to him self, but he will be killing the goose wit the golden eggs if he attempts it.

Play in the London International Chas Tournament will begin a May 30, and continue throughout June and July, Th Committee have been able to scoure for the purpose the St Stephen's Great Hall adjoining the Royal Aquarium at Westminster, a magnificent building, handily situated for sight-soers and capable of holding a rge company of spectation. The prize fund is to amount to £1500, and there will be two contests, a double-round tourns ment limited to the sixteen finest players in the world (as selected by the committee and a single round tourney for twenty mesters of lesser note. It is always difficult and invidious task to select competitors for a limited tournament, but the matter is in good hands, and Sir George Newnes' Committee will provide the chess public with a classic volume of muster play as a result of the contest.

The Singapore Chess Club has arranged a Skittle match, to be called a Rapid Transit' contest. An Umpire will be stationed with a watch to call the close of each minute, and the more must be made forthwith. It is frequently said that such lightning play is productive of very poor chess, and this is doubtless true in one sense. It is incompatible with detailed analysis, and the rapidly succeeding call Mr H. W. Andrews Mr Deon A. Levy must be hard on nervous players, but it should encourage brilliancy, rapidity and Mr G Apear intrepidity, and check the development of Mrs & Miss Arnold Mr John C. MacColl the weary master-play where slow fencing through three-score moves leads only to a Mr B. J. Barlow weary, dreary and complicated pawn-ending. Mrs Beatty & child

Janowski, Pillsbury, and Lasker have all been starring through the spring time, and there are rumours of impending matches, but I doubt much whether they or Tarrasch are at all likely to fatigue themselves in such fashion in anticipation of the forthcoming International Tournament. Janowski's own estimate of their powers gives the first place to Lasker and Pillabury, and brackets himself with Tarrasch for second place. He thinks, how-ever, that he could heat La-ker in a set match, owing to the latter's conservatism,

I take from the Japan Mail the following pretty corresp indence game, with notes by Mr W. B. Mason, of Tokio :-Game No. 220

MHE ancients believed that rheumatism was the work of a demon aithin a man. Any one who has had an attack of sciatio or inflummatory rheumatism will agree that the infliction is domining enough to warrant the belief. It has never been claimed that Chamberlain's Pain Balm would cast out demons, but it will cure chounatism, and hundreds boar testimony to the truth of this statement. One application relieves the pain, and this quick relief which it affords is alone worth many times its cost, For sale by all Daders, WATKING, & Co., General A cuts,
